An original working
Maine Lobster Boat,
built in 1910 by Charles Morse

Join Captain Ed on the "Chrissy" for a truly memorable sail aboard one of the last original working Maine lobster sloops. Enjoy being on Frenchman's Bay while Capt. Ed explains how the "Chrissy" would have hauled lobster traps under sail nearly 100 years ago.

Watch for bald eagles, porpoises and seals. Bring along a picnic meal! On quiet sunset sails, Capt. Ed has even been known play a song or two on his guitar!
